Education

Columbia University, B.A., 2025; Major in Human Rights; Concentration in Ethnicity and Race Studies and Environmental Justice; Dean's List; Charles H. Bjorkwall Prize.

Anand provides a range of administrative, marketing, and legal support across a variety of client matters.

His previous advocacy experience allows him to contribute substantive research support and attention to detail to the firm's legal teams. Before his graduation, he was the Vice President of the Columbia College Student Council, where he produced critical community events, and advocated for the rights of students and academic freedom. He also worked as a Visitor Relations Associate for Columbia Undergraduate Admissions and as a private bartender.
