Education

The University of Alabama, B.A., 2025;
Major in Criminal Justice and Psychology; Dean's List.

Before joining Sher Tremonte, Gabriella interned at Singleton Schrieber, where she assisted attorneys with case preparation and client communications. She graduated from the University of Alabama with dual degrees in Criminal Justice and Psychology, earning Dean's and President's List honors throughout her academic career. While at Alabama, Gabriella partnered with the university's Speech and Hearing Center to promote accessibility for individuals with hearing and speech impairments and raised significant funding to support its programs. As Vice President of Philanthropy for Delta Zeta's Alpha Gamma chapter, she helped raise over $40,000 for the UA Speech and Hearing Center, the American Society for Deaf Children, and the SeriousFun Children's Network. She also served in leadership roles with the Student Government Association and Beat Auburn Beat Hunger, championing campus-wide engagement and service.
