Education

Yale University, B.A., 2013, magna cum laude; Phi Beta Kappa; John Hubbard Curtis Prize for excellence in the English major

Ryan's responsibilities include drafting correspondence, memoranda, and court filings; maintaining internal case databases and files; performing document review; and helping implement firmwide e-discovery and document management protocols.

As a senior paralegal, he has the institutional knowledge and industry experience to anticipate logistical challenges before they arise, streamline processes and procedures, and ensure the delivery of exceptional client service.

Prior to joining the firm, Ryan taught English as a second language in Saintes, France, and worked as an e-discovery clerk for Reed Smith LLP.
