Taylor has handled investigations and trials for a range of federal criminal cases, including those involving conspiracy, witness tampering, obstruction of justice, and domestic terrorism.

Prior to joining Sher Tremonte, Taylor was an Assistant United States Attorney in the Criminal Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office in Washington, D.C. She has tried numerous cases, and has experience in all stages of criminal litigation, from grand jury proceedings to sentencing. She has also litigated novel statutory and constitutional issues, including before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit.

Taylor also has extensive experience in commercial litigation matters, including business disputes and real estate litigation, both at the trial court level and on appeal.
